ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Edward Edmonds of Swanton, who underwent an operation at the St. Albans hospital for the amputation of both feet when they were frozen about January 1, has been taken to the state hospital for the insane at Waterbury.

Beverly S. Dow, a retired well-to-do farmer of Passumpsic, dropped dead Monday at the Boston and Maine station at Passumpsic. Trainmen saw him fall and rushed to his assistance, but life was extinct. He was 68 years old and a native of Barre. Heart trouble is ascribed as the cause. He leaves a wife.

Kenneth, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Hathorn of Rutland, fell thirty feet from a back piazza onto an ash heap, in which were broken pieces of glass, which cut him considerably. Both bones of his right forearm were broken and a deep gash was cut on the back of his head.

The ice is now about all gone in the middle of Lake Champlain and the remainder would quickly disappear with the right kind of wind or rain. This is considerably earlier than is usual for the lake to clear and navigation will probably be resumed at an earlier date as a result. The steamers of the Champlain transportation company are now in readiness to make their first trip.

John E. Harris of Danville and Washington, D. C., well known in Vermont newspaper circles, has formed a partnership with Jason M. Cady of St. Johnsbury in the real estate business under the firm name of The Homestead Realty company. The new firm begins business this week with Mr. Harris as manager. Mr. Harris went to Washington as private secretary of the late U. S. Senator Ross and a short time after was appointed guardian of the "east door" of the Senate chamber, a position he has held for about 15 years.

Thomas Greenwood of Bennington, who was convicted three years ago of furnishing liquor to a posted man and who "eloped" while working out a six months' sentence, is again in the county jail and will have to begin at the front end of that six months' sentence. At the time of his conviction Greenwood was put at work in Bradford's knitting mill and had been there fully three months when he suddenly disappeared. Since he left town he has worked in different places, on lumber jobs, on the big Somerset dam and in a mill at Pittsfield. It will probably be sent to Rutland for his half year sentence.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS.

Five Reappointments on State Fair Commission—Others Named.

Gov. Allen M. Fletcher has made the following appointments on the state fair commission, to fill the vacancies left by the expiration of the terms of five of the members: Lamotte county, George H. Terrill of Morrisville; Rutland county, W. E. Carter of Rutland; Orleans county, M. A. Adams of Derby; Windsor county, Maxwell Evans of Windsor; and commissioner at large, H. G. Baldwin of Wells River. These are all reappointments.

The governor also appointed Miss E. M. Miller of St. Johnsbury as a member of the board of registration of nurses, to succeed herself.

E. A. Bemis of Lunenburg was reappointed as supervisor of gorges and unorganized towns in Essex county; W. J. Wright of Montgomery Center, as supervisor of Avery's gorge in Franklin county; E. S. Brewster of Colchester, as supervisor of Avery's gorge in Chittenden county.
